The multiplier event conference of P4I organized by Kapadokya Egitim ve Arastirma Dernegi (Cappadocia Education and Research Association - CERA) took place in Nevşehir, Türkiye after the final stages of the project implementation period with the attendance of 50 face-to-face participants. The multiplier event of the Passion For Inclusion (P4I) project aimed primarily to disseminate the results and intellectual outputs of the project to a wider audience and to raise awareness of the importance of being aware of the sexual education for disabled individuals, their teachers and parents. This event focused on presenting the entire project and its intellectual products developed and how they can be used to improve sexual education for disabled individuals.

The conference brought together people from government organizations, academicians, psychologists, guidance personnel, teachers, non- government organizations, civil society and families of disabled individuals. The conference was an open platform for all the interested parties involved in special education issues to provide the participants.

The P4I multiplier event conference included the details of the intellectual output (IO-1, IO-2, IO-3).

-- The obtained results from attitude scales, attitudes and value of educators and parents about sexuality education for disabled people, the current situation in Europe and social cultural influence on the view of sexuality education for mentally disabled individuals. Increasing awareness about sexual education in the formal and informal educational environment and the positive impact of sexual education on mentally disabled individual's life.

-- The content of Sexual Education model modules (For teachers, for parents of mentally disabled individuals and visual training tool for mentally disabled individuals). Introducing sexuality education model and enhancing understanding about the key concepts of the model.

-- The benefits of the learning platform and the mobile app (ICT tools) for equal opportunities in inclusive education and information access to be provided for each and every member of society. Importance of the using mobile app in sexual education for key actors on mass education and sustainability of the P4I project. Encouraging information for the participants of the conference how to use the E-Learning platform, phases and evaluation and certification of lessons learned via platform and mobile app.
